

Respecting Sexuality

Place me like a seal over your heart,
Like a seal on your arm;
for love is as strong as death
its jealousy unyielding as the grave.
It burns like blazing fire,
Like a mighty flame.
Many waters cannot quench love;
Rivers cannot sweep it away.
If one were to give
all the wealth of one's house for love,
it would be utterly scorned.

Song of Solomon 8:6-7

The most important thing being made in the image of God tells us about ourselves is that people have value to God. While He created us along with all other things, He made us different from all other created things by making us in His image.

You feel your own life – your heart, your mind, your body, your sexuality, the people and things you are connected to – and you spontaneously fill with the exclamation: “God, it feels great to be alive!” That’s delight.

Ronald Rolheiser

quote fancy

God intends and expects marriage to be a lifetime commitment between a man and a woman, based on the principles of biblical love. The relationship between Jesus Christ and His church is the supreme example of the committed love that a husband and wife are to follow in their relationship with each other.

Goodness of Sex

- Sex, in fact, is good
- God created us with capacity for love and communion
- Empowered us to create new life
- Made us as sexual beings with equal dignity and worth

COMMANDMENTS

Premarital Sex is a Sin

- To many, sex before marriage is a sin against the body.
- Sinning against the body means losing respect for your body, as well as the body of the one you're involved with.
- Many end up in counseling or therapy to deal with problems related to “teenage” sex.

The 6th Commandment

“Thou shall not commit adultery”

(Ex 20:14; Dt 5:18)

A stone tablet with a double-arched top, resembling the Ten Commandments tablets, is centered against a bright blue sky with white clouds. The text is inscribed on the tablet in a black, serif font.

You shall not covet your wife.
